

PLEASE withdraw the FCC petition immediately FORCING Indiana to accept the very weak Federal no-call standard of an "established business relationship". Just about anything could imply an "established business relationship" thereby rendering the law useless. This is one place where our State got it right. DON'T GIVE IN TO THE LOBBYISTS' PRESSURE.